FOCUS

- Perspective
- Morals
- Intent

19

MORALS

A person's standards of behavior or beliefs concerning what is and is not acceptable for them to do.

Overlap with ethics where right or wrong conduct is considered

22

PERSPECTIVE – IS THERE MORE THAN ONE RIGHT ANSWER?

20

ETHICS VERSUS MORALS

Guiding principles of conduct of an individual or group	Principles on which one's judgments of right and wrong are based
Influenced by profession, field, organization, etc.	Influenced by society, culture and religion
Related to professional work	Not related to professional work
Uniform compared to morals	Vary according to different cultures and religions

23

IS HE LOOKING AT YOU OR IS THIS A PROFILE PICTURE?

Things to Consider

- How someone else may see this
- Once you see this one way, are you able to see it the other way?
- Do you feel strongly about your perspective?
- How easily can you be swayed to see it another way?

21

IS THERE A JUSTIFIABLE REASON TO VIOLATE COMMON MORALS?

Common morals for thought:

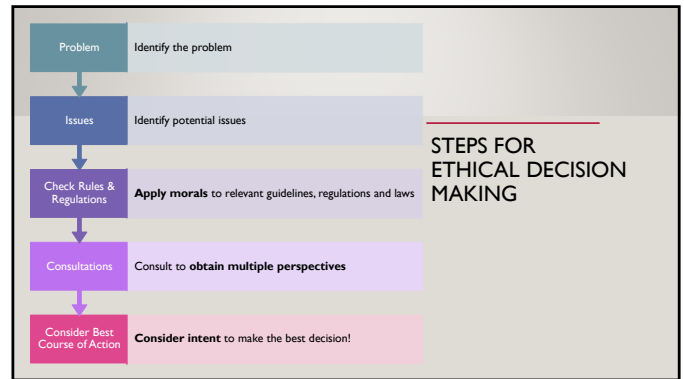

1. Always tell the truth
2. Do not destroy property
3. Do not cheat
4. Treat others as you would want to be treated
5. Be dependable
6. Have respect for yourself and others
7. Be tolerant of differences
8. Have humility

25

28

EXAMPLES OF INTENT

- A subordinate thinks you are trying to make things difficult, but that not your intention.
- You practice running with the intent to win the race.
- You wake up early because your intent is to arrive at work on time.

26

BASIC HUMAN NEEDS

- Abraham Maslow Theory (1943)
- Lower needs must be satisfied before going up a level

29

EQUAL PARTS THROUGHOUT THE PROCESS

REAL LIFE ETHICAL DILEMMAS

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

40

SELF-ACTUALIZATION NEEDS

- Growth motivated
- Self fulfillment
- The full realization of one's potential and of one's "true self"
- Desire to become the most that one can be
- Feeling of one doing all they are capable of
- Maslow's research suggest it rarely happens (less than 1% of adult population)

38

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

- It has become clear that one of your coworkers takes advantage of her privileges. She frequently takes breaks, comes in later than her start time and is not actually working on her "work from home" day a fact that is supported by evidence on her social media, which she brazenly posts.
- In addition, she is constantly complaining and indifferent to her assignments. She gets the job done with minimal effort, often blaming results on others or outside factors.
- She just blamed you for something that she did. What do you do?

41

- Non-hostile sense of humor. This refers to the ability to laugh at oneself.
- Comfort with solitude. Despite their satisfying relationships with others, self-actualizing people value solitude and are comfortable being alone
- Spontaneous and natural. True to oneself, rather than being how others want.
- Comfortable acceptance of self, others and nature. Self-actualizers accept their own human nature with all its flaws. The shortcomings of others and the contradictions of the human condition are accepted with humor and tolerance.
- Few friends. Few close intimate friends rather than many perfunctory relationships.

CHARACTERISTICS OF SELF-ACTUALIZERS

39

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

Your co-worker asks you to cover for him so he can sneak out of work early to go to his son's softball game. Do you agree? If he went anyway, would you keep silent?

42

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

• You are appraising a large, new property that has been built in your CAD. The newspaper says that it is worth at least $500 million dollars, but your appraisal is coming in considerably lower than that. Your Chief Appraiser insists that your value is too low and wants you to get it up or he will assign it to someone else. What do you do?

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

• While in the restroom, you overhear your boss telling a colleague that Bob is going to be laid off at the end of the quarter in about two weeks' time. Bob is a good friend of yours. Do you tell him?

46

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

Company policy forbids co-workers to become romantically involved. You go to the same church as someone from another department, and you find yourself becoming attracted to this person. Do you pursue the relationship?

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

• There are a group of appraisers at work that are all friends who have a habit of teasing co-workers. Most of the time the teasing is harmless, however, you see them really embarrass a new employee in front of others at the office. When you say something to one of them, they just laugh it off as just making the new guy feel like part of the team. You see the new employee later still visibly upset about what happened. What do you do?

47

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

• Your best friend is the Chief Appraiser for another CAD. You take her out for lunch just to catch up on personal stuff, and you pick up the check. Do you declare this a "business lunch" and submit the receipt for reimbursement?

45

HAVE YOU EVER? ...

- ... lied to your mother? your boss? the IRS?
- ... lied so you wouldn't hurt someone's feelings?
- ... lied to get out of a business or social engagement?
- ... taken a questionable deduction on your income tax?
- ... fudged figures on a report to make the results look better?
- ... taken a sick day when you weren't sick?
- ... lied to a taxpayer ("we sent it out yesterday") or ("I'll check and get back to you")?
- ... blamed someone else for something you knew you were partly responsible for?
- ... used any of these phrases: "Everybody does it," "It's the lesser of two evils," "It's only a little white lie," "It doesn't hurt anyone," "Who will know?"
- ... put inappropriate pressure on others?
